Post-Mission Debrief - Designation ISR-88-12BBY

Location: Ord Mantell, Classified Sector (Mountainous Region)

Filed By: Flight Officer Gah'ee Nebra'Soter

1. Mission Overview

- Objective: Extraction of priority Imperial asset (identity classified as "Inquisitor") stranded in an active combat zone.
- Date (Galactic Standard): Approx. 12 BBY, local date varies by Ord Mantell's regional cycle.
- Assigned Unit: 73rd Special Operations Wing, under Naval Intelligence oversight.

2. Deployment & Insertion

- Deployment Order: Flight Officer Gah'ee NebraSoter was assigned to deploy a rescue vessel into hostile territory on Ord Mantell.
- Landing & Contact:
 1. Initial descent achieved despite moderate anti-air fire from entrenched insurgent positions.
 2. Flight Officer NebraSoter disembarked to locate and secure the wounded Inquisitor.
 3. Hostiles engaged with small-arms fire, improvised explosives, and possible outdated anti-armor rounds.

3. Asset Retrieval & Egress Attempt

- Asset Located: The Inquisitor was found in critical condition within a makeshift defensive perimeter.
- Immediate Exfiltration:
 1. The rescue craft attempted takeoff under mounting enemy fire.
 2. During liftoff, hostile ordnance inflicted severe damage on the vessel's main thrusters.
 3. A forced crash landing occurred approximately 2.3 km west of the original LZ, in a canyon passage.

4. Ground Engagement (Post-Crash)

- Securing the Asset:
 1. Flight Officer NebraSoter and the Inquisitor established a temporary defensive position near wreckage.
 2. Engaged multiple local insurgents employing close-range tactics.
- Encounter with Force-Wielding Hostile:
 1. A solitary combatant wielding a green-bladed lightsaber engaged Imperial forces at close range.
 2. The Inquisitor neutralized this hostile. No further identifications regarding the individual were recorded.
- Enemy Forces: Outpost defenders attempted to mount a coordinated counterattack but were ultimately suppressed.

5. Extraction & Support Arrival

- Secondary Extraction Vessel:
 1. Responding to distress signals, a second Imperial transport touched down within minimal-range approach.
 2. Flight Officer NebraSoter and the Inquisitor boarded under residual small-arms fire from remaining insurgents.
- Post-Engagement Clean-Up: Ord Mantell command staff authorized an aerial bombardment of the enemy's stronghold, eliminating residual threats.

6. Casualty & Equipment Assessment

- Imperial Personnel:
 - Flight Officer NebraSoter reported minor injuries (abrasions, potential ligament strain). Combat status remained stable.
 - The extracted Inquisitor sustained classified injuries; further medical details restricted to Intelligence High Command.
- Equipment Losses:
 - Primary rescue vessel declared irrecoverable.
 - Expenditures of small arms munitions and survival gear noted; final accounting pending.

7. Preliminary Conclusions

- Operation Success: Primary objective-rescue of the Inquisitor-was completed despite high-risk environment.
- Insurgent Profile: Resistance cells on Ord Mantell appear organized and possess limited Force-related assets or alliances. Further investigation recommended.
- Officer Performance:
 - Flight Officer NebraSoter displayed effective crisis management, demonstrating adept marksmanship and piloting under duress.
 - Recommendation for further special-ops deployment pending psychological and physical evaluations.
- Recommendations:
 1. Extended surveillance of Ord Mantell's mountainous regions to root out lingering insurgent activity.
 2. Consider heavier armament on extraction craft for future infiltration missions.
 3. Continue to monitor any evidence of rogue Force-wielders in Outer Rim territories.
